Tutoring Problem

Problem Statement:

- Finding a tutor for a specific problem is difficult because most tutors specialize in the broader subject rather than the exact issue a student needs help with.

Who is experiencing the problem?

- Students from all fields.

What is the problem?

- A good private tutor app does not exist

Where does the problem present itself?

- Drop-in tutoring and time-reserved tutoring can almost solve finding the right tutor, but not quite

Why does it matter?

- Finding a good tutor is too difficult
